TRUSU Rolls Out Biggest Back to School Ever

Kamloops – This September the Thompson Rivers University Students' Union (TRUSU) will host its biggest back to school series of events ever.

TRUSU will be holding its 'Kickstart' (annual orientation events) including the Annual Back to School BBQ, an Outdoor Movie Night, and the 1st Annual Tunes Against Tuition Fees Concert. This year approximately 7000 students are expected to attend the various events.

"I am excited. This year we have worked hard over the summer to make sure that Kickstart is a top quality event for our members", said Kyle Bowman President of the Thompson Rivers University Students' Union – TRUSU.

On Thursday, September 4, 2008 at dusk the Students' Union will be presenting Old School and 300 in a outdoor theatre featuring a full concert sound and an over twenty foot screen. On Friday, September 5, 2008 from the 11:00 am to 2:00 pm the Students' Union will hold the 21st Annual Back to School BBQ featuring over 50 vendor booths, local entertainment, and free food. And, on Saturday, September 6, 2008 at 7:30 pm the Students' Union will host the 1st Annual Tunes Against Tuition Fees Concert featuring The Stars. The concert will be free for all students' and will take place on campus.

"One of the founding principles of the Students' Union is to provide high-quality, low-cost entertainment for our members and we have no doubt that we are going to more than deliver on that promise this September," stated Bowman.
